

Ex. 'A'

1 the loan or the deed of trust at this point in time.

2 THE COURT: All right. So as to that part of the
3 relief, I assume, Mr. Burke, you would want at least that
4 partial relief granted as soon as possible so you could record
5 the order. Is that fair to say?

6 MR. BURKE: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Winslow, do you have any
8 objection to Mr. Burke submitting an order granting that aspect
9 of the relief, and would you want to sign off since your client
10 isn't involved?

11 MS. WINSLOW: Yeah. I would want to sign off on it.
12 I do not have an objection to that part of his request.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Mr. Burke, go ahead
14 and prepare that part of the request and submit it forthwith.

15 All right. And then, with respect to the contempt
16 aspect of the motion, the attorneys' fees, Mr. Burke, again,
17 I'm very familiar with the case, obviously. And I've read the 18 materials filed on both sides. I'm simply going to issue an 19 order. Was there anything that you wanted to add to -- that's 20 not in the record? Well, let me not -- don't anything beyond
21 the record. I'm just saying is there anything you want to 22 emphasize?

23 MR. BURKE: Well, several points, but I'll be real
24 brief, just that the hourly rate is reasonable, the hours were 25 done, it wasn't half successful, that there were additional
